

Questions and Answers

Q: Are prices to be submitted in Bid Price column the total of all 8 issues or are the prices to be submitted in Bid Price column per quarterly issue (1 issue of 8)?

A: The price in the bid price column should be for one quarterly issue.

Q: The request states that a quote is needed for plus or minus cost of adding a 4 page signature for each of the 3 different page counts. (36, 40, 44). There is only 1 line in the BID Price column for each page count. Where are we to put these other pricing for additional page counts as the bid price column only has 1 line to enter a price? Also pertaining to the above is the request for an additional 100 copies. Where do these prices go on the Bid Price column as the bid price column only has 1 line to enter a price?

A: The bidder is to submit all-inclusive pricing for mail and mail prep (page 3 of the bid) and for production and delivery of a 36, 40 and 44 page magazine including copies.

Q: Does the printer supply the printed envelopes that the foreign mailings go in (Printer will be responsible for preparing the foreign mailing pieces by placing them in an envelope with ASPA return address.)?

A: The printer does supply the printed envelopes for the foreign magazine mailings.